Like previous forms, I occasionally consult an LLM if I have questions about the specifics of very lengthy technical documents, or if I need a bit of inspiration when writing multiple paragraphs. Any output that's used is modified heavily such that the remaining content is my own.

10. Please explain your rating above about AI's impact on your learning for this submission. (Write in 2-3 sentences) *

I used my preferred LLM to help come up with some suggestions for the risk assessment of our M1 Report. I found that due to my lack of experience with project management and related operational tasks, I literally didn't know where to begin with different risks, and what my team and I could do to mitigate these. All of the risk descriptions and mitigation strategies are my

☐ Not confident

13. How did you ensure the answer you received from the AI tool was correct? *

I can't ever be sure if the output provided is accurate, which is why I only use it as an inspirational framework for some of my writing. Verification is something that I must do internally with my own logic, but I also consulted external resources when needed, some of which may be mentioned in the risk assessment

14. Did you at any point abandon using AI tools and seek other resources? Explain your answer. (optional)

What made you abandon using the AI tool? Were you more successful using other resources? Input N/A if you have not used any

I never abandoned the AI tools I occasionally consult, it's just that most of the work required for this report didn't need the analysis capabilities of a large language model. So usage of AI for myself is dynamic, and truly depends on my understanding of the work I must do. If I'm missing something, then I seek to improve my understanding by learning from AI; if not, then I proceed
